Volunteer Recognition & Awards

Volunteers are the heart and soul of our organization. Susan G. Komen for the Cure, NEPA Affiliate would like to recognize outstanding volunteers whose leadership and passion has been an inspiration to other volunteers. To that end, we are seeking volunteer nominations for the following award categories. If you or someone you know or perhaps a group or organization has made a significant impact in our community and in finding the cure for breast cancer throughout Northeastern Pennsylvania, kindly show just how much this person (s) have inspired you by completing the nomination forms attached. Your nomination is limited to one category. Please read each category and select the one that best describes the nominee. Awards will be presented to the award recipients during the Komen NEPA Affiliate Annual Awards Program on Wednesday March 31, 2010. Deadline to submit your nomination (s) by mail is February 26, 2010. Self-nominations are accepted. Please do not e-mail nominations.

Award Categories:

Spirit of Hope: The Spirit of Hope Award honors the memory of Judy McDonough Murray. The recipient is chosen based upon how he/she demonstrates leadership, has passion for volunteering and recruiting for Komen NEPA for the Cure events and sets an example for other volunteers.

Angel Award: The Angel Award honors the memory of Ellen Astolfi. The award recognizes the volunteer who demonstrates a commitment to the cause and goes "above and beyond" when working as a volunteer for various Komen events.

Local Media Award: This award is presented to the person or media organization that promotes awareness in the community through collaboration with the affiliate about ongoing Komen educational programs and events in an enthusiastic and positive manner.

Volunteer of the Year Award: This award recognizes individuals on whom the spotlight does not have to be on them to achieve the goals of the organization. The individual embraces the promise and core values of Komen and sees the cause being larger and more important than personal recognition.
